The notice to terminate must specify the termination date, which must be not less than ten (10) clear days after the date on which the notice to terminate is given. Once a notice to terminate has been validly given, this Arrangement will terminate on the termination date set out in the notice.

27.5 Neither party shall have any liability to the other in respect of termination of this Arrangement due to Force Majeure, but rights and liabilities which have accrued prior to termination shall subsist.

- (e) make no admission of liability, agreement, settlement or compromise with any third party in relation to any Strategic Claim the subject of this clause without the prior written consent of the Executive; and
- (f) use all reasonable endeavours to minimise the amount of any liabilities or losses suffered or incurred by the Provider and any exposure of the Executive.

28.2 Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Executive shall in circumstances which it regards as exceptional:

- (a) be entitled (without obligation on its part) to determine the conduct, or course of action to be taken, in respect of any Strategic Claim (and any part thereof) the subject of this clause, including, without limitation, pursuing any application(s) to the Court; and
- (b) be entitled (without obligation on its part) at any stage and at its sole discretion to settle any Strategic Claim (or any part thereof) the subject of this clause, provided that the Executive shall, where practicable, notify the Provider in advance of such settlement.

29.4 The Executive may refuse to proceed with the dispute resolution process set out at 29.2 in any case where the Executive deems the matter to be frivolous, vexatious, without substance, an abuse of process or adequately dealt with and the Executive shall notify the Provider in writing accordingly.

29.5 The provisions of this Clause shall be without prejudice to the Executive's right, in exceptional circumstances, to withdraw from and terminate the dispute resolution process (including any arbitration) at any stage.

29.6 The provisions of this Clause 29 shall be without prejudice to any other rights of the parties pursuant to this Arrangement, including any rights to which the dispute being dealt with by either party under this Clause 29 relates.

30. Termination

30.1 The Arrangement may be terminated in its entirety by either party on the giving of Termination Notice to the other party.

30.2 Without prejudice to the right of the Executive to terminate this Arrangement in accordance with Clauses 27.4 or 30.1, in the event of a serious breach of the performance of the Arrangement by either party, either party may terminate the Arrangement by giving the other party Serious Breach Notice, subject to the provisions of Clause 30.9 in the event of a serious breach by the Provider, specifying the nature of the breach and the date of expiry of the Serious Breach Notice and upon such date, the Arrangement shall be so terminated.

30.3 The Arrangement may be terminated by the Executive in accordance with Clauses 30.4 to 30.7 if there is a Reorganisation or Restructuring of the Provider to which the Executive reasonably objects on the grounds that it will or may adversely affect the Services and provided that such right of the Executive to terminate this Arrangement shall expire if the steps contained in Clause 30.4 are not exercised within 3 months from the date of the Provider notifying the Executive of such Reorganisation or Restructuring. The Provider shall provide such notification to the Executive as soon as reasonably practicable following any such Reorganisation or Restructuring.

30.4 Where the Executive is minded to terminate this Arrangement as a result of a Reorganisation or Restructuring of the Provider if it is not satisfied that the Reorganisation or Restructuring will not, or may not, adversely affect the Services:

(a) the Executive shall so inform the Provider in writing specifying the reasons for its proposed determination, the decision making process that the Executive will follow (as set out in Clause 30.4(b), 30.5 and 30.6) in determining whether to terminate or not; and

30.5 The Provider will have 14 days (or such other shorter or longer period as the Executive may specify) to make written representations to the Executive in respect of the matters referred to in Clause 30.4. The Executive shall consider the representations received from the Provider and within 14 days of receipt of same may (in its absolute discretion) meet with the Provider to discuss the matter.

30.6 Following expiry of the period provided for in Clause 30.5 and allowing for a further 14 day period from the date of a meeting between the parties should a meeting take place, having considered the Provider's representations (if any), the Executive shall make a determination and advise the Provider in writing of its determination and provide Reorganisation or Restructuring Notice in the event that the Executive has determined to terminate the Arrangement on the grounds that the Reorganisation or Restructuring will or may adversely affect the Services.

30.7 For the avoidance of doubt, any decision by the Executive not to terminate this Arrangement as a result of a Reorganisation or Restructuring of the Provider pursuant to this Clause 30 is limited to the Executive's consideration of the impact of the Reorganisation or Restructuring on the operation of this Arrangement. The Executive accepts no responsibility for any consequences of the Reorganisation or Restructuring undertaken by the Provider, whether the Executive has determined to terminate the Arrangement pursuant to this Clause 30 or not.

30.8 For the purposes of Clause 30.2, a “serious breach” on the part of the Provider shall include but not be limited to

- (e) the repeated failure of the Executive, without demonstrable grounds and following written requests by the Provider to the Executive, to provide the Funding pursuant to this Arrangement.

30.9 If, in accordance with Clause 30.2, the Executive is of the opinion that there may be a serious breach of the performance of this Arrangement by the Provider and as a result the Executive is minded to terminate this Arrangement by giving the Provider Serious Breach Notice then the Executive shall give notice in writing to the Board of the Provider specifying:

- (a) the principal reasons why the Executive is of the opinion that there may be a serious breach of the performance of this Arrangement by the Provider;
- (b) the respects in which the Executive considers the Provider is in serious breach of the performance of this Arrangement;
- (c) the decision making process which the Executive will follow in determining whether there is a serious breach which may result in termination of this Arrangement, which decision making process is set out in more detail in Clauses 30.9(d) to 30.9(f) below.
- (d) The Provider will have 14 days (or such other shorter or longer period as the Executive may specify) from the date of the notification letter to make written representations to the Executive in respect thereof and/or to address the matters specified in the notification letter.

- (e) The Executive shall consider the representations received from the Provider and may (in its absolute discretion) meet with the Provider to discuss the matter.
- (f) Following expiry of the period provided for in Clause 30.9(d) and having considered the Provider's representations (if any), the Executive shall make a determination on whether there is a serious breach of the performance of this Arrangement by the Provider and as a result the Executive is to terminate this Arrangement by giving the Serious Breach Notice.

- (d) any cross-default of the Provider in excess of an amount which (in the opinion of the Executive) would or could have a material impact on the Provider and/ or the provision of the Services under any other facilities provided by any third party to the Provider and such default has not been cured within any applicable grace period;
- (e) any similar events to the above occurring under any other relevant jurisdiction in which the Provider is incorporated, resident or carries on business); or
- (f) the Provider (or a key member of the Provider's Personnel) dies or becomes incapacitated and as a consequence the continued provision of the Services by the Provider is delayed, or rendered incapable or substantially more difficult of being performed provided that either party must give notice to the other party at the earliest available opportunity if it forms the opinion that the continued

provision of the Services will be delayed, rendered incapable or substantially more difficult of performance as a consequence of death or incapacity,

30.11 The Executive may, by notice in writing to the Provider, withdraw any notice of termination issued pursuant to this Arrangement and the Executive may, at its discretion, replace such notice of termination with a new notice of termination served in accordance with this Arrangement, which shall supersede all previous notices of termination.
